Excerpt: .People are coming here from all parts of the South. Last quarter I received twenty-five new Church members. They represented Georgia, Tennessee, Kansas, Illinois, Missouri, Mississippi, Texas, Oklahoma, California, Kentucky, Indiana, and Arkansas. How is that for a cosmopolitan ingathering? These new members represent some of the first Churches of our denomination--like Central of Kansas City, McKendree of Nashville, etc. We don t miss getting very many except where some pastor will say to his departing members: If I were going to Colorado, I would join the other Church; that s North. Poor fellow, he himself needs to make a trip to Colorado and realize that this is West. It became a part of the United States four years after Methodism separated., SEVERAL MONTHS AGO the Central Office received a request for literature from Mr. A. W. Wasson, of the Songdo Higher Common School,...
