Excerpt: . . . general information regarding the americanirish historical society. The Society was organized on January 20, 1897, and now has members in twenty-seven states, the District of Columbia, two territories and two foreign countries. The first president-general was the late Rear-Admiral R. W. Meade, U. S. N. (retired). Briefly stated, the object of the organization is to make better known the Irish chapter in American history. There are two classes of members in the organization, --Life and Annual. The life membership fee is 50 (paid once). The fee for annual members is 5, paid yearly. In the case of new annual members, the initiation fee, 5, also pays the membership dues for the first year. The board of government comprises a president-general, a vicepresident-general, a secretary-general, a treasurer-general, a librarian and archivist, and an executive council. There are also state vicepresidents. The Society has already issued several bound volumes and a number of other publications. These have been distributed to the members and to public libraries; also to historical organizations and to universities. Each member of the Society is entitled, free of charge, to a copy of every publication issued from the time of his admittance. These publications are of great interest and value, and are more than an equivalent for the membership fee. The Society draws no lines of creed or politics. Being an American organization in spirit and principle, it welcomes to its ranks Americans of whatever race descent, and of whatever creed, who...
