Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Throughout history humankind has been attracted to the supernatural. Spirits, ghosts and many other strange creatures have filled our minds and captured our imaginations. Strange and beguiling spectres have at times lead people to commit the greatest of all sins Shirk. So are these spirits real? Are they more than just figments of our imagination, or shadows moulded from smoke and illusion? Well, according to Muslims they are very real. Spirits, ghosts, banshees, poltergeists and phantoms can all be explained when one understands the Islamic concept of spirits the world of the Jinn (Demon).The Arabic word Jinn is from the verb Janna and means to hide or conceal. The Jinn are so called because they conceal themselves from peoples sight. The words janeen (foetus) and mijann (shield) come from the same root. Jinn, as the name suggests, are normally invisible to humans. The jinn are part of Gods creation. They were created from fire before the creation of Adam and humankind.According to the traditions of Prophet Muhammad the angels were created from light, the jinn from fire and humankind from "what has been described to you". (meaning clay) God created the angels, jinn and humankind for no other purpose then to worship Him."I did not create the Jinn and mankind except to worship Me." (Quran 51:56)Jinn exist in our world but they live on their own. Jinn have their own distinct nature and features and they generally remain hidden from humankind. Jinn and humans do have some common traits, the most important of which is free will and with it the ability to choose between good and evil, right and wrong. The jinn eat and...
