SAGE Publications Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 224 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.1in. x 0.6in. I liked this book. A must have for counsellors working with families, this will form part of the recommended reading on the Family Counselling course - Barbara McKay, Relate Head of Training, Relate News The book provides a good overview of a number of recent approaches to working with families as well as how the author thinks about them - Stephen Bray, Nurturing Potential Roger Lowe achieves the almost impossible task of bringing together various theories, techniques and case examples in clear and accessible ways. Readers of all disciplines, from front-line hard-pressed practitioners to students on therapy and social work courses, will be grateful for the simple and, above all, useful way he tackles the burning questions that arise in working with the family group. It brings together skills from contemporary models such as solution-focused, narrative and conversational therapies and adapts them to the specific challenges...
