Adventure fiction. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 190 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.5in.VENEZUELA 1697 Jabuti wasn't a happy person. Never had been, never will be - or so he thought. That was until a fateful meeting with the village shaman and the telling of a dark secret about his childhood. Stumbling out of the medicine man's hut into the glare of the midday sun his head swam with emotion. Emboldened by the shaman's revelation he embarks upon an epic venture into the rainforest to seek further answers to his past. Accompanied by his two life-long friends they set off in high spirits, unaware of the presence of a sinister and malevolent stranger whose paths are yet to cross. A clashing of two different cultures will change the three friends' lives in ways they could never have imagined. Will the friends survive their perilous journey? Will Jabuti find the inner peace he has yearned after for so long. . . This remarkable novel is an inspirational story for adults and mature teenagers alike. With vivid descriptions of the colour and vibrancy of the flora and fauna of the Venezuelan rainforest, the reader is transported into another time and place. Set in the brutal world of Spanish colonialism in the seventeenth century, two very different worlds collide, with terrible and far-reaching consequences. With the best traditions of action-adventure novels comes a mix of shamanism and spirituality which guides the main characters on their dangerous quest. With meticulous and detailed research on the history of Latin America, the author has expertly mixed a blend of historical facts into a work of fiction. Heart-warming and inspirational it is a tale of one young man's endless hope and ultimate conviction to grasp the happiness that is rightfully his. For fans of a cracking,...
