Roast beef - potatoes - fudge - salad - cake - oh, that reminds me, I wonder if that cake is done yet! (She goes to oven door and kneeling opens it cautiously; then gives a heart-broken, little scream. Doris drops her book and runs to her sister s side.) Doris. What s the matter, Prue? Prue. The cake - my beautiful cake - it s fallen in the middle! (She draws the cake from the oven.) Doris (giggling). That looks like the map of the Dead Sea that Father has in the Sunday-school room! Prue. You can laugh, but it s no joking matter! Rodney Page will have to go without cake for supper! Doris. No, he won t - you can make another one! Prue. Make another one! Of course I can t. Why, they ll be here in a half hour! I haven t time! Doris (breaking off a piece of the cake and sampling it). It doesn t taste so - so bad! I have an idea - make a whole lot of icing and fill up that hole in the middle until the cake looks even! Mother and I did that one time when the ladies aid was coming and no one knew the difference. Of course (doubtfully) the hole wasn t quite so big! Prue. That was all right for the ladies aid, but not for Rodney Page! Do you realize he s the English Professeur, and he s written books, too! There s just one thing for you to do...
