An old man recalls the moments of his life as an evil spreads over the world. What would you do if you knew you were facing your final days? After a brutal class war, the American landscape looks much different. Bloody cults and violent nomads scour the countryside. Dark clouds gather from above, washing the Earth in soot from the fires that burned out long ago. Single minded, the old man prepares for the end and toils away at the last shred of his humanity. He realizes that he is trapped within himself. He finds that there are No Rooms without Walls. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
