SpnuTUALiM, in Medieval times. Popular Science Monthly for January: 8 pp. A striking picture of the insane superstitions of that period in which European cathedrals were reared, an age of sincere but fanatical earnestness. See also Ghostism, by Prof. Mitchell; S. R. Wells Co.: 249 pp. Sdndat-school Wobk, its present phases, by Dr. Egglestou. Scribncr, February: 7 pp. Too little dovotlon to the production of Christian character and broad philanthropic work; too much perfunctory lesson-hearing, frivolity and system; too little freedom, common-sense and personal sympathy. The uniform lessons, libraries, normal classes, institutes, and conventions criticised. In the same number is a thoughtful article on the Political Outlook, in view of a coming campaign which promises to be a close one, and contested with special fierceness. Soymdlism, Pagan and Christian. Literary and instrument of music; in a primitive wor World, December-6....
